LAW OF THE SEA.

What They Are and Are Liable to Be.

PROTECTION FOR THE SEALS.

The Questions in Dispute Between the United States and Great Britain Over the Control of the Behring Sea No Nearer Solution Than They Were in June, 1890.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The president has taken the Behring sea question in hand and, yesterday, in the enforced absence of Mr. Blaine, on account of sickness, had an extended interview with the Hon. J. W. Foster, who has the matters in charge in the state department.

Lord Salisbury's refusal to renew the modus vivendi leaves the questions in dispute where they were prior to June, 1890. At that time Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister to Washington, stated the position of England as follows:

"Her Britannic majesty's government have learned with great concern from notices which have appeared in the press, and the general accuracy of which has been confirmed by Mr. Blaine's statements to the undersigned, that the government of the United States have issued instructions to the revenue cruisers about to be dispatched to Behring sea under which the vessels of British subjects will again be exposed, in the prosecution of their legitimate industry on the seas, to unlawful interference at the hands of American officers. Her majesty's government is anxious to co-operate to the fullest extent of their power with the government of the United States in such measures as may be found to be expedient for the protection of the seal fisheries."

"They are at the present moment engaged in examining, in concert with the government of the United States, the best method of arriving at an agreement upon this point. But they can not admit the right of the United States of their own sole motion to restrict for this purpose the freedom of navigation of Behring sea, which the United States have in former years successfully vindicated, nor to enforce their municipal legislation against British vessels on the high seas beyond the limits of their territory or jurisdiction."

"Her majesty's government is therefore unable to pass over without notice to the public announcement of an intention on the part of the government of the United States to renew the acts of interference with British vessels navigating outside the territorial waters of the United States, of which they have previously had to complain."

"The undersigned is in consequence instructed to protest against such interference and to declare that her Britannic majesty's government must hold the government of the United States responsible for the consequences that may ensue from acts which are contrary to the established principles of international law."

Secretary Blaine, in August, 1890, replying to Lord Salisbury's proposition to arbitrate, cited the questions in dispute. In view of the recent failure to reach a basis for arbitration the secretary's statement is interesting, as showing the present position of the United States government on the subject in question. It is as follows:

"First—What exclusive jurisdiction in the sea known as the Behring sea, and what exclusive rights in the seal fisheries therein, did Russia assert and exercise prior and up to the time of the cession of Alaska to the United States?"

"Second—How far was these claims of jurisdiction as to the seal fisheries recognized and conceded by Great Britain?"

"Third—Was the body of water now known as the Behring sea included in the phrase 'Pacific ocean,' as used in the treaty of 1825 between Great Britain and Russia, and what rights, if any, in the Behring sea, were given or conceded to Great Britain by the said treaty?"

"Fourth—Did not all the rights of Russia, as to the jurisdiction, and as to seal fisheries in Behring sea, east of the water boundary, in the treaty between the United States and Russia, of March 30, 1867, pass unimpaired to the United States, under that treaty?"

"Fifth—What are now the rights of the United States as to the fur seal fisheries in the waters of Behring sea outside of the ordinary territorial limits, whether such rights grow out of the cession by Russia of any special rights or jurisdiction held by her in such fisheries or in the water of Behring sea, or out of the ownership of the breeding islands and the habits of the seals in resorting thither and rearing their young thereon and going out from the islands for food, or out of any other factor incident connected with the relation of the seal fisheries to the territorial possessions of the United States?"

"Sixth—If the determination of the foregoing questions shall leave the subject in such position that the concurrence of Great Britain is necessary in prescribing regulations for the killing of the fur seal in any part of the waters of Behring sea, then it shall be further determined: First, how far, if at all, outside the ordinary territorial limits is it necessary that the United States should exercise an exclusive jurisdiction in order to protect the seal for the time living upon the islands of the United States and feeding therefrom?"

"Seventh—Whether a closed season (during which the killing of seals in the waters of Behring sea outside the ordinary territorial limits shall be prohibited) is necessary to save the seal fishing industry, so valuable and important to mankind, from deterioration or destruction? and, if so, third, what months or parts of months should be included in such season, and over what waters it should extend?"

The repeated assertions that the government of the United States demands that the Behring sea be pronounced mare clausum, are without foundation. The government has never claimed it and never desired it. It expressly disavows it. At the same time the United States does not lack abundant authority according to the ablest exponents of international law for holding a small section of the Behring sea for the protection of the fur seals. Controlling a comparatively restricted area of water for that specific purpose, is by no means the equivalent of declaring the sea or any part thereof mare clausum. Nor is it by any means so serious an obstruction as Great Britain assumed to make of the south Atlantic, nor so groundless an interference with the common law of the sea as is maintained by British authority today in the Indian ocean.

No War Cloud Visible.

NEW YORK, March 8.—Sir George Baden-Powell, of England, member of the Behring sea commission, was seen yesterday at the Windsor hotel. In an interview he said he could not see the faintest speck of war on the international horizon. The commission in Washington was secret in nature and could not be discussed. "Certainly Lord Salisbury refuses to renew the modus vivendi of last year, because the same conditions do not exist. Modus vivendi in this case is a mere phrase and means nothing. It is totally out of place in the present instance, and is used to make a point. I do not mind saying that the work of the commission is progressing favorably."

The commissioner emphasized the fact that the published reports of what had been done in the seal question were totally at variance with the truth and calculated to mislead the public. He said that the ministry had practically approved the plan to submit the question to arbitration.

Sir George spoke of visiting the seal islands and did not think the seals were diminishing in numbers as fast as many imagined.

VESSEL LOST.

The Invertrossachs Goes Down in Mid-Ocean and Ten Men Perish.

PHILADELPHIA, March 8.—Shipping circles were startled yesterday by the report of the abandonment in mid-ocean of the ship Invertrossachs, involving a loss of upwards of $250,000 to the underwriters. Ten men are said to have perished. The news was received from Captain Duetchers, of the "Bear Creek," which vessel has arrived from Penaut.

On the afternoon of March 3, in latitude 40 deg. 50 min., longitude 53 deg., Captain Duetchers fell in with the British steamship Mendelssohn, bound from Baltimore to Rotterdam. The Mendelssohn signaled that she had on board twenty-six of the crew of the Invertrossachs.

A search of the ship's articles filed with the British consul shows that on leaving here the Invertrossachs was manned by a crew of thirty-six men, and it is believed the other ten have perished. The Invertrossachs sailed from this port on Feb. 1, bound to Calcutta, laden with 1,092,500 gallons of oil in cases, valued at $79,752.

The Invertrossachs was owned by D. Bruce & Company, of Dundee, and was 2,577 tons register. She had four masts, and was the stanchest and best fitted out steel ship that has ever been here.

Noah Porter Laid to Rest.

NEW HAVEN, March 8.—The funeral services over the late Rev. Noah Porter, ex-professor and president of Yale college, were held in this city yesterday. After a private service at his late residence Mr. Porter's body was taken to the college chapel, where services were conducted by President Dwight. There was a large attendance. The pallbearers were ex-United States Minister W. J. Phelps, R. G. Ingersoll and Professors George T. Ladd, H. E. Newton, G. E. Day, J. M. Poppin, George J. Brush and Henry W. Farnum. The body was interred in Gove Street cemetery.

Now What Will Sullivan Do?

NEW YORK, March 8.—W. A. Brady, manager for James J. Corbett, yesterday put up a forfeit of $1,000 in this city and issued a challenge to John L. Sullivan to fight for $10,000 a side and the largest purse that a club will give. Brady said that he would add $1,500, making a forfeit of $2,500 in all, as soon as he learned that Sullivan had indicated a willingness to meet Corbett. Brady adds that Corbett will sign articles to fight in August, September, or whenever it suits Sullivan best. All we want, concluded Brady, is a sign from him that he will make the match.

Indicted Fourteen Times.

NEW ORLEANS, March 8.—Under an indictment, found in Trenton, N. J., all the officers and principal employees of the Louisiana state lottery were arraigned yesterday in the United States court. They are charged with violating the anti-lottery postal law, the fourteenth charge they have been forced to plead to on indictments from various states.

Opening the Lumber Season.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., March 8.—Active preparations are under way for an early opening of the lumber season. The log jobbers have received orders to break landings and turn the logs loose without further delay, as there are already indications of a rise in the streams. It is believed that at least 100,000,000 feet of logs can be driven through on the first flood.

Died of Blood Poisoning.

SPRINGFIELD, O., March 8.—George Runyan, living near Vienna, died in great agony from the bite of a ferret. Recently in handling a ferret it bit him. The injury was then considered trifling, but blood poisoning set in.

MAY BECOME SERIOUS

Division Between American and English Colonists.

TROUBLE BREWING IN JAPAN.

The Trial of Lieutenant Hetherington, of the United States Navy, for the Murder of George G. Robinson, the English Banker in Yokohama, Being Closely Watched by All Three Countries.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—A dispatch from Yokohama says a serious division has arisen between the English and American colonies relative to the shooting of George Gower Robinson, the English banker, by Lieutenant T. J. Hetherington, of the United States navy.

Under the existing treaties with Japan, European countries and the United States have extra territorial jurisdiction over criminals belonging to their respective nationalities. This jurisdiction, Japan has for some time labored to abolish, but without success, as foreigners claim that they are not yet sufficiently convinced that Japanese justice is fitted for dealing with civilized people.

The case of Lieutenant Hetherington, of course, comes under American jurisdiction, as he is the person accused, and he will be tried by the American consular court, but the English are watching the case very jealously, and should Hetherington be acquitted and let off with a light penalty there will probably, judging from existing feeling, be reprisals in some form.

Robinson was very popular among the English colony and his friends claimed that there was no good cause or excuse for Hetherington taking the law in his own hands.

The case has already led to very strained relations between English and American society in Japan, and some of the leading English have given the cut direct to their American acquaintances, especially of the official class.

As English influences are predominant in Japan, the situation also affects unfavorably American relations with the natives. Hetherington's friends are making efforts to secure evidence that will place him right in the eyes of the foreign element, and give reason for his acquittal that both the American and the English will regard as satisfactory. To prove that Robinson boasted of his conquests of the other sex, and that Mrs. Hetherington was not the only victim of his wiles, and that the circumstances under which Lieutenant Hetherington took the life of the alleged seducer of his wife would have justified any husband acting as he did.

On the other hand, Robinson's ante-mortem statement denying that he had been guilty of any wrong, and asserting that he had only flirted with Mrs. Hetherington, has many believers, and will, it is claimed, tell strongly against Hetherington in his trial. The case is a most embarrassing one for the consular court, whose duties are usually confined to complaints against, or by seamen, or occasional acts of wrong doing by cosmopolitan vagrants.

It is all the more embarrassing because the Japanese will watch it narrowly, as a specimen of foreign society which they are now losing no opportunity to criticize.

The Japanese are deeply aggrieved, because America and England have not consented to accept Japanese jurisdiction for their subjects, and they will, therefore, be delighted to be able to point to an alleged failure of justice.

The Lima National Still Closed.

LIMA, O., March 8.—The stockholders of the Lima National bank have so far failed to decide upon raising the amount necessary to enable them to go into voluntary liquidation and the only alternative now is the appointment of a receiver, which will be done as soon as the report of Examiner Ford, which has been sent to Washington, is received by the comptroller of the currency. Messrs. Conderman, of Philadelphia, and Cornell, of Akron, O., two of the largest of the shareholders, have been prevailed upon by President Faurot's attorneys to help the bank out, but have decided not to interfere, as it would take several hundred thousand dollars to place the bank in position so that the doors could be opened, and they refuse to advance the cash. It is intimated that there will be some sensational developments in the way the institution has been run within the next few days.

Mr. Mills Has a Relapse.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Congressman Mills, of Texas, who has been progressing favorably through an attack of erysipelas in his foot, had a slight relapse yesterday, caused by an indiscretion on his part. He started for the Capitol, forgetting his condition in his anxiety to be recorded on the silver bill rule, but was intercepted by his physician, Dr. Sowers. As a result of this attempt at walking, Mr. Mills is suffering from another return of erysipelas in the foot.

Express and Freight Trains Wrecked.

BALTIMORE, March 8.—The Chicago express which left Camden station at 7:15 last night, collided with an extra freight train bound east at Rockville. Fireman Buckaloo, of Cranberry, and brakeman Featers, of Martinsburg, Va., were killed and Engineer Peters, of the express, and an express messenger slightly injured. No passengers were hurt. Two sleepers were slightly damaged. The accident was caused by the freight leaving the siding.

Woman Indicted for Murder.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., March 8.—The grand jury has returned an indictment for murder in the first degree against Mrs. Julia A. Sykes, who shot John Danforth, of Westfield, to death. She will not be admitted to bail.

DASTARDLY PLOT.

Villainous Attempt at Incendiarism and Murder.

TROY, N. Y., March 8.—A fire yesterday morning unearthed a most villainous attempt at incendiarism and murder. Shortly after 3 o'clock flames were discovered in the two-story double building 508 Second street. The structure contained the families of Mrs. Kinney, John Carrigan, Timothy Collopy and James Lowrie, in all seventeen persons. They were all sleeping soundly when the odor of smoke and kerosene awakened Carrigan. He immediately aroused his family and ran into the street to give the alarm.

In the meantime the Carrigans succeeded in awakening the other tenants, who, however, found all avenues of escape cut off by the flames. The women shrieked and ran wildly about in their desperation, throwing their children from the windows to the crowd which had gathered below. In the meantime the fire department, which had arrived on the scene, made heroic efforts to subdue the flames and, with the aid of citizens, soon succeeded in extinguishing them.

Chief Engineer Byron immediately instituted an examination, which left no doubt that the fire had been part of a dastardly plot. The police were called in and their investigations disclosed that the attempt was attributed to Nicholas Connell. Connell, it appears, called Sunday night while drunk, and demanded to see his wife, who is living with the Carrigan family, and who separated from him nine months ago. Seeing his condition Mrs. Carrigan denied his request and ordered him from the house. He attempted to force his way, when Mrs. Carrigan repulsed him with a poker, cutting him. Mrs. Connell, who heard the fracas, says that she heard her husband say: "I'll get even; I'll burn the house and every one in it." Connell, who was found in a neighboring house, denies his guilt and asserts that he can prove an alibi.

CONGRESSMAN KENDALL DEAD.

A Vacancy in the Tenth Kentucky District.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Hon. John W. Kendall, representative in congress of the Tenth Kentucky district, died at his residence in this city at 9:25 last night from the effects of two strokes of apoplexy received yesterday morning. Sunday night when Mr. Kendall retired he felt in good condition, but about midnight he awoke and complained of feeling ill. He attempted to sit up in bed but fell back unconscious, and remained in that condition until his death. The second stroke came about two hours after the first.

The funeral arrangements have not been perfected. In the house Mr. Painter, of Kentucky, will today make the announcement of his colleague's death and the house will adjourn. If the announcement is made when the house meets the opening of the tariff debate will be postponed until Wednesday. The interment will take place at Mr. Kendall's late home, West Liberty, Kentucky.

Missing Witness Found.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 8.—A few weeks ago an old farmer named Hicks was murdered in a low resort in Cincinnati. He was drugged to death. The police of that city have been searching for a missing witness to the crime. They now think they have found him in the county jail in this city. The man is W. H. Phillips, serving a term for loitering. He was first arrested by Patrolmen Hagerman and Thompson on a charge of conspiring with a woman to poison Mattie Douglass and rob her of her diamonds. On this charge he was acquitted, but Chief Splan locked him up for loitering. Phillips says he has been at the Cincinnati resort frequently, and knows of strange things occurring there, but has no knowledge of the murder. He will be taken to Cincinnati when his time here is out.

All Took Place in a Saloon.

NEWTONVILLE, Ind., March 8.—A quarrel, which began some days ago between Joseph Sherrill and George Hill, was renewed Saturday night in a saloon here, and an encounter ensued in which chairs, tables and clubs took a prominent part. When the row ended it was found that Joseph Sherrill was fatally wounded in the back with a knife, Jim Sherrill had his skull fractured, and was unconscious, and George Hill was stabbed in the left breast. All three will die. None of the others were seriously wounded.

Population of New York City.

NEW YORK, March 8.—The population of this city, exclusive of the inmates of institutions who are to be looked after by the state secretary, is according to the census just completed, 1,800,891. This is 267,860 more people than New York was credited with by the federal census. The total as announced by Superintendent Porter, was 1,513,501.

Suing for Damages.

DAYTON, O., March 8.—Squire Murphy, who was injured in the wreck on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, last summer, when the National Cash register people went on an excursion to Wooddale, has brought suit against the company for $10,000 damages. He claims that he has been permanently injured by the accident.

Tough Boys.

COLUMBUS, O., March 8.—John Hennessy, Harry Webb and John Lawrence, all under age, have been arrested for breaking into a Panhandle car at Trimway and stealing $3,000 worth of shoes and clothing.

Horse Thief Arrested.

COLUMBUS, O., March 8.—Jeff Powers, colored, who stole a horse and $41 from George Davis, of Portsmouth, Feb. 29, was arrested here yesterday and taken to Scioto county by Sheriff Gust.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 1892.

PENNSYLVANIA may form the keystone of the Democratic arch at the Chicago convention.

KENTUCKY Congressmen know a good thing when they see it. They are all candidates for re-election.

GOVERNOR BROWN has approved the bill repealing the local option law in Berlin precinct, Bracken County, emergency clause and all.

THE first five delegates selected to the Democratic State convention in Pennsylvania are solid for Cleveland, tariff reform and honest government.

THE Watterson Club, of Louisville, haven't been stricken with the prevailing craze. They refused to adopt a resolution inviting Senator Hill to address them on his Southern trip.

IF Governor Brown's charges of cruelty against M. P. Bolan, ex-Warden of the penitentiary, are true, the Chief Executive's friends are certainly placing him in a bad light by trying to choke off an investigation.

IN the Legislative proceedings a few days since the statement was made that the revenue and taxation bill as it now stands leaves the Sheriffs collectors of taxes. This is only partly true. The section was amended so that the County Treasurer shall be the collector of taxes after 1895.

ANDREW CARNEGIE, the iron baron, testifies that the McKinley law has aided the iron industry. Isn't this same Carnegie one of the manufacturers who reduced the wages of his employees since the new tariff went into effect? If the iron industry has been aided by the McKinley bill, the employees in that industry ought to get some of the benefit.

SOME of the Frankfort correspondents explain that the principal reason why the Legislature so unanimously passed that resolution inviting Senator Hill to stop at Frankfort on his Southern trip was because most of the members wanted to get a look at Tammany's favorite. We felt satisfied they weren't especially anxious to hear him read an address.

* An effort was made in the Legislature Saturday to legalize a little salary-grab, but it failed for want of the necessary majority. The Louisville Post explains the matter. It says: "When Governor Brown went into office he found, as ex-officio member of the sinking fund, that body was paying the extravagant sum of $500 per annum to an employee of the Auditor's office for writing up the minutes. This was equivalent to a salary of more than $40 per month, and the Commissioners won't average one meeting for that time the year around. The Governor kicked at this unwarranted expenditure of the public money, and he and the Auditor had a little tiff over it." The objection was effective, however, and the Auditor's employe hasn't been drawing that $40 a month since the Governor dropped out the soft snap. Hence a resolution was introduced in the Legislature Saturday to authorize the expenditure, but it failed to carry, and the Auditor will have to have those minutes recorded hereafter or let them go unrecorded.

County Court Doings.

The Union Trust Company qualified as administrator of Henry Alexander, colored.

In the case of Lida Lippert and others, on petition ex parte for a division of property, a written judgment was entered.

An inventory and appraisal of the personal estate of the late James Gault was filed. The appraisal amounted to $7,269.04.

How Onions Should Be Fried.

[Exchange.]

The art of frying an onion so that it will be delicate and crisp is not generally understood, says an exchange. The fried onions usually served in families where the cooking is in other ways unexceptional are a brownish-black mass so permeated with grease that they are neither wholesome to eat nor good to view; nor are they half cooked. There is but one way to fry this vegetable which will give the right result—that is, to cut it in slices and soak it in milk for at least ten minutes. Then dip the slices in flour and immerse them in boiling fat, hot enough to brown instantly a bit of bread thrown in it. You cannot keep the onion in slices, so it is not worth while to try to do so. After they have fried for six or seven minutes they may be lifted up with a skimmer on to brown paper, and will be found firm and thoroughly delicious. Cooked in this way they may be served as a garnish to a daintily-broiled beef-steak, to a dish of fried chops or beef croquettes.

REPRESENTATIVE HART'S BILL,

To Provide for the Inspection of Oil—
Proceedings of the General Assembly Monday.

Only twenty of the State Senators were present yesterday, and the Senate adjourned without transacting any business.

In the House, Mr. Spalding, of Marion, arose to a question of personal privilege. He feared that the House had construed his remarks in the Bolan resolution controversy on Saturday, as questioning the veracity of Governor Brown. He desired to disavow such intention, and to assure the House that he would take neither side of the question. He did not doubt the Governor's earnestness and honesty in any manner regarding the Bolan charges.

Representative Hart of Fleming County, introduced a bill to create the office of Oil and Petroleum Inspector, and to provide for the inspection of all mineral and petroleum oil offered for sale for illuminating purposes in this Commonwealth. It provides for the appointment of Inspector and Deputies by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, provides that the Inspector shall give bond for $20,000 and deputies a bond of each for $1,000 for the faithful discharge of their duties; describes the means and methods of making the tests, and fixes penalties for any violation of the provisions of the act.

Mr. Pettit offered a resolution requiring the Auditor to report to the House the total expenses of carrying on the Land Office from Sept. 5, 1887, to March 1, 1892, and the total receipts from said office during the time mentioned. Adopted.

A resolution to authorize the Committee on Charitable Institutions to visit the various asylums was opposed by Mr. Pettit. He said it would cost the State $1,000 to accomplish nothing. Speaker Moore gave notice of a ruling to the effect that it would require 51 votes to pass the resolution, it being in the nature of an appropriation. The original was withdrawn and Mr. Myers offered a substitute. The word "authorize" was changed to "permit" in the resolution. Mr. Taylor, Chairman of the Committee, said if the resolution passed in this shape he would not go. The resolution was finally sent back to the committee.

Mr. Myers brought up the resolution to allow the Speaker his customary $10 a day. He proposed an act which would in the future govern such cases, unless changed by law. Mr. Pettit opposed it, and the balance of the session was taken up in its discussion.

Following is the bill now pending to abolish the office of Assessor:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky: § 1. That the office of Assessor in the various counties of the Commonwealth of Kentucky be, and is hereby, abolished, and in lieu thereof the Justices of the Peace in the counties will perform all the duties and obligations of Assessors in the respective districts from which they are elected, and shall receive the same compensation for their service as now allowed by law to Assessors, and liable to the same penalties that are or may be prescribed by law for Assessors.

§ 2. That said Justices shall be ex officio members of the Board of Supervisors, in connection with the fiscal court, to revise the taxes, and shall perform the same duties as prescribed by law governing Boards of Supervisors of tax, and receive the same compensation for their service.

§ 3. This act shall take effect from and after the expiration of the terms of office of the present Assessors.

Compliment to a Bourbon Boy.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN,
ANN ARBOR.

Col. Craddock, Dear Sir—Knowing the interest which you take in all Bourbon County young men, we take the liberty of sending you the following item:

Ex-President Cleveland was this year selected to give the annual address to the law students on Washington's Birthday, and (though not generally understood by the reporters) it was principally through the efforts of Committee-man Mr. Albert Martin, of Millersburg, your county, that the distinguished statesman was secured.

In the evening a reception was held in the court-house, when Mr. Cleveland was presented to the vast assembly of students by Mr. Martin. After a short talk from Mr. Cleveland, the law students called for Mr. Martin, who responded in a few well-chosen words, following which the senior law class presented with a silver cup in token of their admiration for the excellent manner in which he had conducted the affairs of the address.

We take especial pleasure in sending you this report, as that given by Louisville and other papers did not do full justice to the honor due Mr. Martin. Believe us

Yours Truly,
L. D. MCCLINTOCK,
S. A. JOY,
J. FRANK KEENE.

Mr. Martin is a brother of Mr. E. H. Martin and Mrs. Hugh Bierbower, of this city.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

SPRINGDALE.

W. P. Degman and wife returned from Nebraska Sunday.

Out sowing is being pushed with vigor.

John Dean moved on the farm of F. P. Degman Monday.

T. P. Degman refused to accept all round for a nice crop of tobacco which was raised on his farm near here.

Mr. Roeb Hendrickson and Miss Fannie Mount will be married Thursday evening.

MAYSIECK.

Ground hog winter, we hope, is over for this season.

There is not much going on here now but the singing school.

S. A. Cliff has rented his farm to Pat Manion for $1,000 a year, cash.

Copper, of Maysville, was here last week spending a few days with his mother-in-law in the country.

We all have to send to Maysville for our fresh meats. The farmers won't sell shoats short of their weight in gold.

S. A. Cliff has rented the Longnecker property, three-quarters of a mile above this place, and will move there soon.

J. A. Jackson would take it as a special favor if those owing him would call and settle. He needs the money to pay his bills.

H. Devin has moved into a cottage on Mrs. Anna Wilson's place, near her residence. Harry is a very good fellow to see after things generally.

J. A. Jackson, during the past week, has opened a large and elegant stock of spring goods, which he is offering very low to cash buyers. Give him a call. Patronize home.

Pat Sherlock, formerly of this county, now of Fayette, came over last week to make a short visit. He called on the writer last Friday night with some of the useful. Pat is an honest man.

Bruce Clarke, of Millersburg, with Charles Jordan, of Baltimore, were stopping at the Stone-wall House last week. The latter had a large line of nobly samples from a large shoe house in Baltimore. He sold to but one firm in this place, Captain J. A. Jackson bought a nice line of him.

Mrs. Narcissa White, who had been living here for several years, died on the 2nd inst. Funeral services on the 3rd, Elder F. M. Tindler officiating. Her remains were taken to Mt. Carmel for interment on Thursday morning. Deceased was sixty-five years old, and had been delicate for a long time. She was truly a christian lady. She expressed herself to the writer that she was ready to go and be with Jesus, that dear friend on whom our hope of heaven depends.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, proprietors Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 5,296 hhds., with receipts for the same period of 5,108 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 37,321 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1891 on our market to this date amount to 32,730 hhds.

The offerings of tobacco on our market have been exceedingly heavy again this week, and the only change to note in the market as compared with a week ago is a slight decline in low grade new hush.

Trash (dark) or damaged tobacco..... $ 2 50@4 50

Common color trash..... 4 00@5 50

Medium to good color trash..... 5 00@8 00

Weekly Review of Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

The offerings at auction for the week just closed were 3,238 hhds, classed as follows: 822 hhds. Medium Leaf (Ky.) District; 897 hhds. Pennington County (Ky.) District; 420 hhds. Owen County (Ky.) District; 421 hhds. Blue Grass (Ky.) District; 867 hhds. Brown County (Ohio) District; 8 hhds. Indiana, and 13 hhds. West Virginia, of which 1,750 were new, against 3,151 hush of the previous week, of which 1,685 hush were new, and 2,682 hush corresponding week last year, of which 1,115 hush were new. Total offerings for the year to date 36,521 hhds of which 11,551 hush were new, against 29,499 hush of the time last year, of which 7,393 hush were new.

Receipts for the week..... 5,108

Receipts same week last year..... 5,166

The offerings were the largest ever known during one week in this market, and the receipts were also heavy, showing a very decided increase over last week. The business for the week, taken as a whole, was not so satisfactory as noted heretofore, the market not being the one actually shown in the bidding, and the market can be quoted as easier, this feeling being prevalent on all grades. This may be in part attributable to the very heavy breaks and a surfeit of common and low grades, 60 per cent of the entire offerings being of this kind. In old the demand for good and fine leaf—the number of which was small—was steady, and full prices paid. Medium leaf and red tobacco were not sought after and are easy. Common trash, lugs and nondescripts were as active as noted heretofore, but are bringing fairly good prices when compared with those received last fall. The market on new was not so active as in the previous season, and there being a general easy feeling. Common and low grades were in fair demand, and prices paid were, as a rule, accepted. Common and medium leaf was only fairly active. Good and fine leaf was in the supply, and showed a steady demand at full prices.

Of the 1,750 hush (old) 81 sold from $1.50 to $3.95, 432 from $4 to $9.95, 594 from $10 to $19.95, 230 from $20 to $29.95, 312 from $30 to $44.75, 97 from $15 to $19.75, 9 from $20 to $24.25 and 2 at $25.36 to 27.

Of the 1,492 hush (new) 170 sold from $1 to $3.95, 456 from $4.00 to $5.95, 497 from $6 to $7.95, 153 from $8 to $9.75, 127 from $10 to $14.75, 55 from $15 to $19.75, 9 from $20 to $23.75 and 2 at $25.36 to 27.

AT LONG DISTANCE.

New York and Chicago Will Be on Speaking Terms Within a Year.

CHICAGO, March 6.—Within a year the first long distance telephone will be completed between Chicago and New York. Before then it is expected that every one of the more than 8,000 telephones in Chicago will be replaced with copper metallic circuit instruments, by the use of which any sound can be transmitted for thousands of miles with perfect distinctness. These improvements will cost the American Bell Telephone Company and its auxiliary corporations several millions of dollars. The work of building the first line from New York across the continent was begun several months ago. Without following the route of any railroad the line has been built straight across the country over the Alleghenies and across rivers. Its western terminus is now at Cleveland, from which point it will be pushed rapidly westward to Chicago and beyond. Another transcontinental line is projected, and in fact already begun, which will pass through Pittsburg and reach Chicago by another route.

River News.

The Stanley was on time yesterday, and led the Bonanza from this place down.

Due up: Bonanza at 9 p. m. for Portsmouth, Telegraph for Pomeroy and Congo for Pittsburg at midnight. Down: City of Madison to-night.

The Bonanza had her flags flying yesterday on the occasion of the inauguration of her Monday excursions. Her orchestra was discoursing sweet music.

Proceedings of the City Council.

A called meeting of the City Council was held last night, President Cox in the chair. Ten members were present.

Richard Medlin, the new Deputy Marshal from the Sixth ward, presented his bond, with T. M. Pearce, T. A. Keith and H. H. Collins as sureties. On motion of Mr. Nowell, the bond was accepted, and Mr. Medlin then took the oath of office.

The case of Mrs. Beuley was referred to the Committee on Alms.

Council adjourned.

Hicks' Weather for March.

Professor Hicks says: "About the 7th it will turn warm, and many storms will occur from that date to the 11th. Watch and see! These storms and cold following call for special care of man and beast. The 14th is the center of reactionary movements. From 19th to 24th look for equinoctial storms and gales. They will come! Sea-faring folks beware! Mercury will drop very low—rising for reactionary storms about the 26th and 27th. Month will end, growing warmer with storm conditions moving from the West. Earthquakes, a natural feature of perturbations. Shelter and feed well your stock."

Houston Cure for Drunkenness.

The Houston Narcotic Cure Company, of Omaha, Nebraska, just opened a branch office last week, at Lexington, for the cure of drunkenness, and the morphine, opium, cocaine and tobacco habits. It is owned and operated by a syndicate of leading citizens, composed of Judge Mat. Walton, D. F. Frazee, Judge S. G. Sharpe, G. A. DeLong, J. R. Couch, H. D. Rodman, Hon. C. Alford, Dr. W. L. Elmore and W. H. Boswell. The office is in the Johns Block, opposite the Custom House. Patients are coming in daily, and letters of inquiry are pouring in from different sections of the State. Indications are the Institute will have a hundred people in a few weeks. Hundreds of people have been cured by the remedy in different states.

Fitz and Kathryn.

The New Orleans Times-Democrat says: "The play 'A Breezy Time' has just plot enough to keep the cast moving on the stage with a natural unconventionality. It needs no study, as it unfolds itself. All the audience have to do is to sit and laugh and enjoy themselves to their hearts' content. E. B. Fitz, as 'Reuben Merrifield,' and Miss Kathryn Webster, as 'Daisy Lightfoot,' play the most important roles but get ample support from the remainder of the company, nearly all being painstaking, clever people and capable of taking much more difficult parts. Mr. Fitz is an excellent comedian, and like Miss Webster, the pleasing little soubrette, has a good voice and considerable musical accomplishments. Miss Helen Rainsley, who appeared as 'Bessie,' sang a number of songs, and all of them well. In fact the entire play was interspersed throughout with catchy songs, pretty dances and uproariously amusing specialties, and there was not a single harmful line or gesture from its beginning to its ending."

At the opera house Thursday night. Tickets on sale at Nelson's.

A GREY eagle that measured eleven feet from tip to tip and weighed thirty-one pounds was killed in Bourbon County Thursday. When shot it was in the act of carrying away a live two-months-old lamb.

THE people have an opportunity to buy goods of W. L. Thomas & Brother at lower prices than ever offered before. The stock must go, as they have to give up their store room in a very short time.

ONE of Louisville's five medical colleges turned out one hundred and two doctors last week. And yet the Courier-Journal spoke the other day of people dying down there "without medical assistance."

THE examining trial of Carrie Payne, charged with perjury, was postponed yesterday until this morning. It resulted in her being sent to jail in default of $200 bail to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court.

THE work of fitting up a number of elegant offices over Mitchell, Finch & Co.'s Bank was commenced yesterday. The room just east of the bank will be remodeled and will be occupied by Mr. John Ballenger, the jeweler.

THE place to buy is where you can buy the cheapest. Now, I will guarantee that my prices are lower than other houses charge for same goods.

MURPHY, the Jeweler, 4th Successor to Hopper & Murphy.

THE wife of L. W. Pulliam, of Adams County, ran away with a man named Woods, taking her two children with her. Pulliam caught the party at Madison, Ind.; and there would have been a shooting scrape had by-standers not interferred.

BEING compelled to give up their store room about the first of March, W. L. Thomas & Brother have made a still further reduction in their prices and are now offering any thing in their immense stock at prices never before offered in this market.

SPECIAL OFFICER E. W. FITZGERALD has been in Covington several days running down a number of boys who have been rocking C. and O. passenger trains at that place, of late. A lady passenger was struck a few days since and received an ugly cut on her head.

MR. CHRISTIAN HELMER, through Mr. Mr. A. M. Campbell, agent, sold yesterday a house and lot on the south side of Second street, between Short and Wall, to Gable Bros. for $2,150. The property is just east of Zweigart's warehouse. The new owners will use the lot for a coal yard.

THE Newport correspondent of the Commercial Gazette says: "Thomas McMann and Pat Matton, hailing from Mayville, were found walking about the streets at an early hour Friday morning, and run in as suspicious characters. They gave a good account of themselves in the Mayor's Court, and were discharged with a warning as to their future behavior."

IN Bourbon County J. Henry Johnson and Stephen Burbridge engaged in a shooting scrape that came near resulting fatally to a by-stander. Johnson worked for Burbridge. They had some words and Burbridge got his repeating rifle and Johnson got his shot gun and fired at Burbridge, the shot striking his sister, Miss Lucy Burbridge, the charge going into the left side of her face and shoulder. Johnson escaped. The Burbridges are children of the late Col. O. H. Burbridge.

MR. E. W. GALBREATH and Miss Fannie McCarthy will be married next Thursday at 1 p. m., at the home of the bride's father, A. K. McCarthy. The groom to be is one of the prominent and well-to-do farmers of the county. The news of his approaching marriage will be a surprise to his friends, as he was thought to be a confirmed bachelor, having reached the age of fifty-five years. The future Mrs. Galbreath is a niece of Messrs. G. A. and P. M. McCarthy, of this city. She is thirty-five years of age.

WHAT THEY WILL DO

Emperor William Says He Will Pulverize Russia.

THIS NEWS IS SENT TO THE CZAR.

He Says When Germany is Ready to Begin He Will Throw Half a Million Soldiers Over the Frontier with Pleasure. Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, March 8.—A St. Petersburg dispatch to The Standard relates this story as an echo of Emperor William's famous Brandenburg speech. After the emperor sat down at the close of his address, a guest said to him jokingly that he apparently had forgotten that Russia was always behind him. The emperor retorted: "Ich werde Russland zerstauben" (I will pulverize Russia.)

Shuvaloff, upon hearing this remark, made close inquiries concerning it, and then communicated the details of the scene and the dialogue in question to M. DeGiers, who related them to the czar. At a court reception four or five evenings ago the czar is said to have addressed General Von Schweinitz rather abruptly with the words: "Tell your emperor that when he wants to begin pulverizing us we will throw 500,000 soldiers over his frontier with the greatest pleasure."

General Von Schweinitz has communicated, it is said, this message to the Emperor William.

The story, while doubtless exaggerated, is vouched for by The Standard correspondent.

Rumors of William's sympathy with the Poles has rendered the czar especially bitter against him lately.

Death of a Celebrated Man.

PARIS, March 8.—Etienne Arago, brother of the famous astronomer, died here yesterday. He was about ninety years old, and was a celebrated character many years ago. He was a journalist and playwright early in life, and at one time manager of the Theater de Vaudeville. He was conspicuous as an agitator, taking part in the revolutions of 1834 and 1848. In 1870 he was mayor of Paris, and in 1871 was a member of the national assembly. He went abroad on two or three government missions. Since 1878 he had been archivist of the Ecole des Beaux arts.

Another Victim for Niagara.

LONDON, March 8.—William J. Davis, of Sydney, N. S. W., a noted swimmer, has started for America with the intention of swimming the Niagara rapids, wearing nothing but the ordinary swimming trunks. This was the feat in attempting which Captain Webb lost his life.

Trying to Save the Elder.

LONDON, March 8.—The Elder has been lifted off the main rock and a final effort to float her will be made next week.

Insurrection Feared.

VIENNA, March 8.—It is stated from Warsaw that Russia is billeting troops in private houses, fearing an insurrection.

WHEN MAY A CHRISTIAN KILL?

Dr. Lyman Abbott Answers It When a Murderer Joins Church.

New York, March 8.—Darwin J. Meserole was received into membership in Plymouth church, Brooklyn, Sunday, upon the usual profession of faith, with a score of other persons. Some severe criticism of the Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott's position in regard to Meserole was published in a newspaper Sunday.

Dr. Abbott read the criticism Sunday night and then made this reply:

"What I have said is that in the evidence in the case and on inquiry made of some disinterested parties who were present at the trial I believe that Mr. Meserole's shooting was not only excusable, but was by every consideration of manhood demanded.

"That statement was based on the fact that the undisputed evidence in the case showed that a woman was being beaten to death before Meserole's eyes; that Meserole's remonstrances were unavailing, and when he shot it was only to defend the woman who had fled to his protection.

"It may be a disputed question whether according to the teachings of Jesus Christ one may kill another in his own defense, but I have no question that Christian courage demands that, when a defenseless woman is being beaten and a Christian is standing by, he should interfere, and if necessary to kill the assailant in order to protect the life of the assailed he should do it."

Husband Would Not Come.

RICHMOND, Ind., March 8.—Mrs. Jennie McCracken committed suicide here last Sunday night in a novel manner. After taking an ounce of cyanide of potassium, she went to her room and hurriedly prepared herself for death. The poison threw her into convulsions that attracted the other occupants of the house, who bursting into the room, found her dying. Her death occurred fifteen minutes after the poison was taken. She was the wife of Edgar McCracken, a prominent business man of Chicago, and it is supposed that his refusal to leave Chicago and come here to reside among her relatives caused her to suicide.

Mania for Assaulting People.

MILTON, O., March 8.—William Bender, a well known and wealthy resident of this place, is under arrest for lunacy and will be taken to an asylum. For some time persons have been assaulted on the highway, and for a time robbery was thought to be the cause. Now it develops that Bender, who is highly respected, takes spells, when he can not resist the temptation to assault people, and during these periods he becomes a veritable Mr. Hyde.

Died in a Few Minutes.

HILLSBORO, O., March 8.—Hon. John A. Smith, president of the First National bank and an ex-member of congress from this district, died very suddenly here yesterday. He had not been sick, but died in a few minutes after his attack.

BIG TUNNEL CAVING IN.

Poor Chicago Called On to Deal with Another Job.

CHICAGO, March 8.—The immense tunnel extending out four miles under Lake Michigan and large enough to drive a team of horses through, which was built for the purpose of increasing the Chicago water supply, has been pronounced a failure. Expert engineers, together with a special committee of the city council have made an examination of the immense work and have prepared a report which will be submitted to the council.

The report, in substance, shows 1,845 feet leading from the shore to be in a fair condition as to general appearances, but it is admitted by the contractor that the brick formation is not according to contract. In some places the sides have spread, and water pressure has forced out the cement from the brickwork. About 6,000 feet from the entrance water trickles through and portions of the walls need rebuilding. In places the arch has been flattened until it is eight inches below the height in the specifications. It will, the engineers estimate, take thousands of dollars to put the tunnel in a safe and proper condition. It is recommended that a more thorough investigation be at once made, the present having been but an incomplete one, owing to the short time given in which to report to the council.

Preparing for a Good Time.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 8.—The department officers of the Grand Army are pleased with the arrangements that are being made at Fort Wayne for the annual encampment of the order, to be held in that city April 6 and 7. The local committees have all been appointed, and Department Commander Walker is assured that veterans will be given a pleasant reception. A public reception will be tendered the visitors on Tuesday evening; on Wednesday evening the annual campfire will take place, and on Thursday evening a ball will be given. The state Woman's Relief corps will meet in Fort Wayne at the same time. Arrangements have been made with the railroads for a one-fare rate for the round trip.

More Memphis Riots Arrested.

MEMPHIS, March 8.—Four more negroes implicated in Saturday night's riot and shooting were arrested yesterday. The police now have thirty-one prisoners and a stock of fire-arms. The eye of Officer Cole will be extracted. Some of the ringleaders have escaped to the swamps of Arkansas. A letter written by Calvin McDowell, leader of the rioters, to his sweetheart, tells that he was at the head of an organization that intended to shoot down every white man that incurred the enmity of any negro in his society.

Hurricane Damages.

LISBON, March 8.—The hurricane of yesterday did immense damage, unroofing houses and leveling trees, and causing great destruction to the harbor. Six persons were killed, and many injured by falling walls and chimneys and remnants that the storm swept through the streets. The river Tagus is rising and is full of floating debris, making navigation almost impossible.

Receiver Discharged.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., March 8.—Walter B. Ritchie, of Lima, who was Saturday appointed receiver of the Pittsburgh, Akron and Western railway by Judge Snailley, of the common pleas court here, was discharged yesterday by the action of the court. The company has effected a satisfactory adjustment in all cases and the controversy is now at an end and out of court.

Found Dead on the Floor.

CLEVELAND, March 8.—Henry Nottingham, who was superintendent of the Lake Shore railroad from 1856 till 1888, was found dead on the floor of his room at the Hawley House yesterday morning. His home was in Painesville. He was arrested on Saturday for intoxication and released Sunday morning. An inquest will be held.

Real Estate Dealer Suicides.

CHICAGO, March 7.—Henry A. Francisco, a wealthy and widely known real estate dealer, committed suicide yesterday afternoon at his residence, 797 Washington boulevard, by shooting himself in the head. He died almost instantly. Deceased was fifty-five years old, and leaves a wife and children.

Silver Bill Voted.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—On a final vote upon the passage of the resolution reported by the committee on rules for the consideration of the silver bill Tuesday, March 22, the resolution was adopted 189 to 83. Fifteen votes being gained by the anti-silver Democrats on this final vote, 70 being their previous strength on all other previous votes of the day.

Explosion of Gas.

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., March 8.—An explosion of gas occurred at the colliery, badly burning Michael Colgan and August Wohler, who were engaged at mining near the place where the explosion occurred. Colgan was so badly burned that he can not live.

Hotel and Saloon Burned.

PURCELL, I. T., March 8.—Fire at the town of Lexington O. T., yesterday morning destroyed the Ansley hotel and Carr's saloon. Ben Montgomery, asleep in the hotel, was burned to death. The fire originated in the saloon, from an unknown cause.

Springer's Physician Hopeful.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Congressman Springer continues to improve, and at this hour his condition is reported to be much more gratifying than it was last night. Dr. Vincent, the attending physician, is very hopeful of the patient's recovery.

Five Men Killed.

ST. LOUIS, March 8.—A freight train wreck occurred this morning on the Missouri Pacific at Ewing avenue, in the western part of this city. Five men are reported killed and several injured.

Blaine Sick in Bed.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Secretary Blaine is not so well as yesterday. Secretary Elkins called, but did not see Blaine, as he is in bed and quite ill.
